Editorial

Describing an early morning in a Dehradun monsoon are one of those moments when words fail you, however infinite your hold on vocabulary may be. The feeling is just so overwhelming that you end up thinking no existing word would do it justice. So is trying to write about what the Probation years have been. The three Newsletters were a sincere attempt towards that direction... To try and record us, what we do, how we do and why the world should be envious of who we are because training here at IGNFA is simply fun, fun and more fun. You sometimes just end up being happy that you're here. No reasons needed. Absolute bliss!

Here we are again today, aiming to define each one of us. And let me tell you that this is not an easy task because we are a talented bunch of 78 people and in a way, so very different and yet, so very similar. It's like we suddenly have a bunch of 77 friends who know more about us than we would want them to. With whom we end up sharing the silliest of things, making the funniest of jokes with each other, on each other and about each other. We literally eat every meal together, walk to the same classroom, get bored at almost the same instant, bully the poor DO (the chosen unfortunate) to call up and cancel PT and games and afternoon classes on rainy days and sunny days (if possible, always), trust our room neighbour to come up with a master copy of some assignment given, gang up for a common cause or simply, book seats on tours or in the balcony half of the classroom.

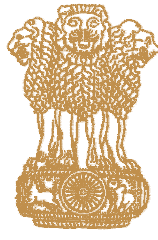

We have learned the beauty of sharing a responsibility, the art of making a project together, the willingness to lead and an even greater willingness to follow, to melt our differences and strive for the common good, to work together for what we believe in and most importantly, to enjoy our days here together.

I wish to thank all the people who have made this Batchbook a reality starting from the Academy administration to each one of us who have taken the trouble of writing in something for the other.

Here's to us. To us, the IFS Probationer! We, friends for life. We, the family we found when we entered IGNFA. Here's to everything that's good and beautiful, to everything that makes us say "Life is beautiful!"

I am happy to note that the young probationers of the 2012 batch are bringing out a batchbook “The Beginning” to record their memoirs of their Training period here at IGNFA. I am confident that this issue shall be a unique one as it carries the emotions shared by the probationers and their palpable sense of energy.

I must place on record that the entire batch has displayed high levels of keenness to learn and acquire new concepts, shown unmatched commitment and sincerity beside their flair for extracurricular activities during the period of their professional training at IGNFA. High energy level runs through the entire batch.

While I congratulate the entire team involved in the preparation of their maiden memoir, I take this opportunity to wish them best of luck for a highly satisfying and rewarding career ahead.

Dr. Alok Saxena

I am immensely pleased to know that the Probationers of the 2012 Batch are coming out with a Batchbook “The Beginning” where they are sharing feelings with each other, their togetherness and recording their memories of days full of joy, thrill, and camaraderie shared here in the Academy.

It goes without saying that this Batch is one of the best whether it is their quest for knowledge, the keenness to learn and adapt or displaying high levels of discipline, commitment and sincerity during the course of training. The batch is highly talented and exhibit high levels of energy as was evident by them during different cultural programmes and other events they participated. I am confident that they will shine in every field they work and bring laurels to the Department in the years to come.

Ms Kanchan Devi

Vice President
Officer’s Club

I am extremely delighted to know that the 2012 Batch is bringing out a batchbook titled “The Beginning”. One of the most enthusiastic and energetic batches, this batch has always been on the forefront in innovation and organization. The greatest achievement of the Probationers of this batch is that they did not let their energy levels go down despite all the jolts and jiggles for two years. The levels of commitment and dedication displayed by them have been exemplary.

I convey my warm greetings and good wishes to all the Probationers on their personal well-being and for their continued progress and prosperity.

I wish their endeavour “The Beginning” a grand success.

I congratulate all the officers of your batch and I wish you all the best for your bright career

Md. Sajid Sultan

General Secretary
Officer's Club

We 2012 batch probationers, coming from different cultural and ethnic backgrounds, mingled here together, to weave a mosaic of colourful threads which imparted not only their lustre but also strengthened the entire fabric of the Forest Service, which is unique and exotic in all respects.

The entire journey of the last 18 months treaded together in IGNFA, will be a walk to remember and cherished in times to come. I consider myself lucky to be vested with the responsibilities of a group which by now is considered as one of the most outstanding and dynamic batches in the league!

I heartily thank my entire batch mates and the "super" core team, which was ever ready to make any program a grand success, be it the colourful Festivals, the welcome Dinners, Vibrant Cultural or the Memorable Farewells.

Last but not the least, I wish all my batch friends the very best in their lives to come, wishing them all the success in their careers; to serve, preserve and conserve our "Green Heritage" for the penultimate benefit of mankind, it's survival and sustenance.

Reflections: The Two Years of Training as an IFS Probationer

I don't know that for last two years how many times I was part of the chatterazzi where the training, the academy, the course content, the management of tours, attachments and excursions and so on is critically discussed. As the training is going to be over, in the hindsight if I see myself, I realized that I am a changed person now. I have gained a lot (weight as well as knowledge)! During these two years I have learnt and experienced so many things which I could never had if I would have continued as a researcher in the University of Delhi.

Life has seen a complete turn since I got into Indian Forest Service (IFS). I was so full in my life as a researcher (the typical I-know-all-syndrome). I joined the field of science (especially biotechnology) with lot of imaginations and dreams to serve the disadvantaged farmer but soon realized that perhaps I am far from his fields. Anyways, by luck and chance, I got into the IFS. It was not an easy decision to leave research (my comfort zone) to be part of something completely unknown.

And by God, what a journey it has been!

In December as I shifted to IGNFA for the IFS training after my foundation course, I gained wonderful batchmates, all unique in themselves. Here, the learning drive got in top gear. The hand which used to work with pipettes got a chance to hold and fire guns (INSAS, AK47, 9MM Pistol). The stay in the chowki of Ranthambore National Park and the learnings from a forester will remain an experience beyond words. Then comes the exposure at the Tata Institute of Social Science, Mumbai, where I realized the excellence of social science and gravity of the subjects and issues. Similarly, the attachments to LBSNAA, NPA, JTRI, ISTM and MDI were a great learning.

Travelling and interacting with people is of the greatest learning. This changes your perceptions and give you a real idea beyond the information and lessons gained from books, TV and the Internet. It at times, dilutes or breaks your prejudices and conjectures. And to my great satisfaction the training is full of travelling and interactions. The best part is you need not bother about your travel arrangements and you are at leisure with a great company of friends. This could never have been a possibility had I not been a part of this training. Indeed I learnt a lot from this extensive travel.

The list is so long for learning, realizations and experiences but I would list the ones which I think I would have never ever have done so easily and royally in life had this training was not there *that I will visit the President of India and the Parliament of India, that I will meet Chief Ministers of J&K & Gujarat, that I will be able to meet and listen so many distinguished officers & public personalities, that I will visit most parts (including jungles) of India (from Kargil to Rameshwaram, from Somnath to Andamans, from Ooty to Tawang and ...), that I will be able to appreciate the diversity of my country in terms of people, places & culture, that I will visit Bhutan and learn about Bhutan from the 2 talented Bhutanese batch mates, that I will see so many tigers and other wild animals in the wild, that I will be travelling with escort that I will trek and camp in hills and jungles without bothering for arrangements, that I will be able to run and exercise every morning in such a green environ, that I will be able to play badminton everyday in an indoor court and football at times (long after my school days!)

that I will be able to learn a bit of swimming (even if it is floating only for 20 meters) that I will be learning how to ride a horse (even if you fall down from it) that I will be able to understand general law and administrative set up of my country that I will be able to understand a bit of governance and bureaucracy in my country that I will be able to appreciate the good works by the govt. officers & their limitations that I will be able to read some great books that I will get company of so many extraordinary learned people from different parts of the country & who are institutions in themselves that I will be participating in and attending so many cultural events that I will be able to comprehend and discuss issues of socio-economic importance that I will learn Gujarati that I will .....*

While I am mentioning so many things, the training was a great learning about Forestry & Wildlife in India, Forest Management and Forest Governance in India, I did not even have a little clue about the same earlier. In a nutshell, the training duration for the last two years was really fulfilling and satisfying for me. I believe this time won't come in life again and will remain in my golden memories throughout. I am grateful to all my batch mates, trainers and faculty for everything. I can't forget the sheer magnanimity of my friends at times I have expected the least. I am completely humbled in their presence. Thanks a lot for making the last two years a life long learning and experience. It was truly a retreat with myself.

And I am sure each one of us feel the same way, in one way or another.

That's how an officer should be. Sir, admire your style!

A keen observer with focus on inside details!

"Life is not only study so lets have a cultural programme or party tonight". Very cordial and pleasant personality

She was the perfect example of how an officer can balance personal and professional lives with elan! Her pleasant personality was admirable.

A keen observer, nothing escapes Arun Prasad sir's notice. His efficiency inspires you to make that little extra effort that will make all the difference.

2012 Batch

His smile with that typical tone "Hehehe...he...he...haa...haa haa....he...he...ee" haunts me at night but I know that he is a good guy. Everyone can understand him very well (except his questions in the class)

"Bright and confident! His engineering knowledge helped many probationers including me to pass in the examinations. The common saying "iske bare main tu chinta mat kar, main dekh lunga" shows his caring nature. His speaking style gives a lot of fun and enjoyment to fellow batch mates

He is the guy who starts with GOOGLE GROUP & ends with BATCH BOOK. Cadre mate se Blue batti chinle wale Bhagwan tujhe maaf nehi karega

The best gift he has given his daughter @ Pinku is the pretty smile he does every time he crosses you.

Intelligent and brave lady with cheerful attitude and positive energy. Unique in responding immediately to any situation in a cheerful manner using neat and clean language.

She is the most dynamic lady of our batch! She is independent, adventurous, agile, sporty, diplomatic and artistic. She is as sweet as a nightingale and as fierce as a tigress...

She is a very dynamic and sweet lady. I can't write more about her .....Simply Bengali Rasagulla.....

The mild Haryanvi. A very open hearted and frank gentleman. One of the few individual who stands firm whatever it takes. For a guy who takes immense trouble to perfectly match his tie to the turban color, he can also charm you with an endless vocabulary and logic. At the same time, makes you also wonder if his jokes are like seriously...?

His joviality is infectious. His talent at PR and ability to perform any task swiftly and effortlessly are commendable. My most lovable Paaji!

The most colorful and noticeable by way of turban in the academy! Very deterministic about his thoughts and puts in a right way whether that is right or wrong. Sometimes makes you laugh if you put your full attention on his jokes

Not everybody can touch your heart or have a heartwarming appeal..but he is one such person..your words are pleasantly sweet just as your voice is..very few can dare to do everything possible to bring a smile to somebody's face the way you do.

Arpana is having a very cool and attractive personality...helping nature...even a good disaster mitigator..and she keeps herself cool in challenging situations...

She possesses the highest level of endurance for long distance running & long duration training

Nice friend of mine whom I missed in the first year of my training. Very helpful, pretty liar, minus size of the batch possessing plus size knowledge and experience in forestry. We had lots of fun, laughter and joy together in a very short time. I will always cherish the moments we spent in common. Love u . All the best

A practical man, his sentences can sometimes amuse you with the common sense with which it is framed. Really, he marched down the stairs and kept to precise timings during his DOship.

I consider him as one of the most genuine and stout hearted person of the batch

An intelligent and keen observer. He is one of those rare fellows who diligently looks into the facts of matter for the benefit of all. He is calm, knowledgeable and down to earth.

Very lovable, affectionate and amicable personality. Whatever he may be for others e.g silent killer, scorpion king, auditor, emotional & .... but he is only Joshi for me. He is one of my best friends who is also very practical

Very energetic and humble..His beautiful Rangolis are the mirror of his superb creativity

Only lady in the batch who teases me ...I like that ..she is very simple and down to earth ..very nice human being ...she wants change in the system which should be honest and systematic ..

Strict but caring. she always speaks in Punjabi and I like it though sometimes I can't figure out what she is saying ..

She is the most self-disciplined, astute, discreet and sincere lady of our batch. It is really hard to forget her much needed Ayurvedic medicines, her hair raising hard pinches, her straightforwardness and the overwhelming concern for the friends...

A sensible and caring person who has set a disciplined path... at the same time friendly, fun loving and of great company to be around...

My room partner in east India tour where he was extremely co-operative and helpful.....love you Debu and will miss you....

Another gem in the row of back-benchers, often saving the hides of others with his thoroughly researched questions!

The roaring Lion of our Batch, always made me take care about training. His hardworking attitude is really appreciable. Every batch needs a person like Dheeraj when most are busy in their own work, there is one person in the extreme back search for questions like pebbles in the sands and shoots it straight which pinches all even if they comprehend it or no. A great person, with whom i could have interacted much more and I will take as a missed opportunity

Appreciate his attitude for life rather than only his vocal skill. His understanding for people is brilliant, Keep charge of details in life.. Wont prepare much for anything but keep himself sufficeintly abreast.. not a KTP from any standard

JK is a man of love, love oozes out of him for everyone and everything, a great botanist and arguably the most energetic man of our batch.

He is highly knowledgeable and very understanding! I admire him for his simplicity and attitude towards life! A fighter!

The self made Messi....brimmed with confidence to defeat any of his opponents in football. Statistically speaking, his presence always made us win football matches (The statistics mentioned here are rather coincidental than his skills of the game)

Her quietness only conceals her strength of will and character. She has the marvelous natural quality of putting the needs and comfort of others before her own.

The Silent neighbor of mine, still I know her very well. The tough lady who never wants to give up, like the Aloe vera in front of her room. I was happy to see her room at times turn into a movie club. Wish I had spent more time. You will have success all the way..

she is an innocent, tough and courageous lady....after all she hails from Kinnaur the place known for ladies with such virtues...

She is cool and calm. Her simplicity makes her different from others. She is a "strong Paharan" of our batch.. Best wishes...

Sincerity gets new definitions around her. But she is also one of the most reliable persons you'd ever come across. Her dance moves are so perfectly rhymed that you wonder if it's the same Kavita you know. She'll voice out her beliefs without any qualms and needless to say, she stands firm as a rock. She's Kavita and her smile makes you happy

I share her feeling how one has to endure when the child is not around ...very sincere lady and hardworking ...I learnt a lot from her ..

Very hard working and dedicated to her work.

She dances like an angel, her words are full of wisdom and she can move mountains with her dedication and her smile can erase the tension from our faces...

The glittering smile and 'ossum' swagger defines this gentleman's walk through the two years of our training. Usually quite reticent, but when the need arises, he will explain any 'messy' situation quite eloquently!

Is it so??? Thamburannnn!!! We have a similarity, as what he says... "we all are 80's born year". Good listener and learner... Difficult to be judged

In it for the passion! And may you always have the very passion to take you your long way in this life of dedication :)

Pakka Gentle man only.. But if he starts teasing somebody.. Then I can see a Real Chennai Boy

The organizer. Angry young man. His charm is indispensable. Nice to have a good friend like him. People should learn management skills with him.

The human resource manager of the batch who also happens to be a very good dancer (until you put him on the stage). Also a smart event organizer who can persuade people, including the higher ups of the academy

Good organizer, have oratory skills and always ready to help. "yaar dekho ye aisa nahi ho sakta...at least main to nahi kar sakta" he says this line very gently and politely (I liked this). His room tells you more about him than himself

The Deal Maker..excellent organizer and orator..

Very good photographer and a good badminton player.. really enjoyed your funny (sorry!! classical ) Tamil sentences..

One of the best buddies I have made here, I hate him when he says he doesn't want to go out, but when you need him he is always with you. It's very hard to find people like him, and As I always say "Tere mein Talent Koot Koot Ke Bhara Hai"

Mohan is a nice person, very humble and easy going. He is always ready to help with his tag line "koi baat nahi yaar, ho Jaayega". He will prove his mettle in field because of his ability to remain calm. One of the best Group leaders we had during this training...

Mohan is my opponent most of the time unless we have a common goal to beat the master, really enjoy playing every evening, like a feast for us, A down to earth desi man

The dancing florican of the batch.
Murli's slide templates are extremely innovative. And add to that, the sumptuous meals he can come up with, Murali is a total all-rounder!

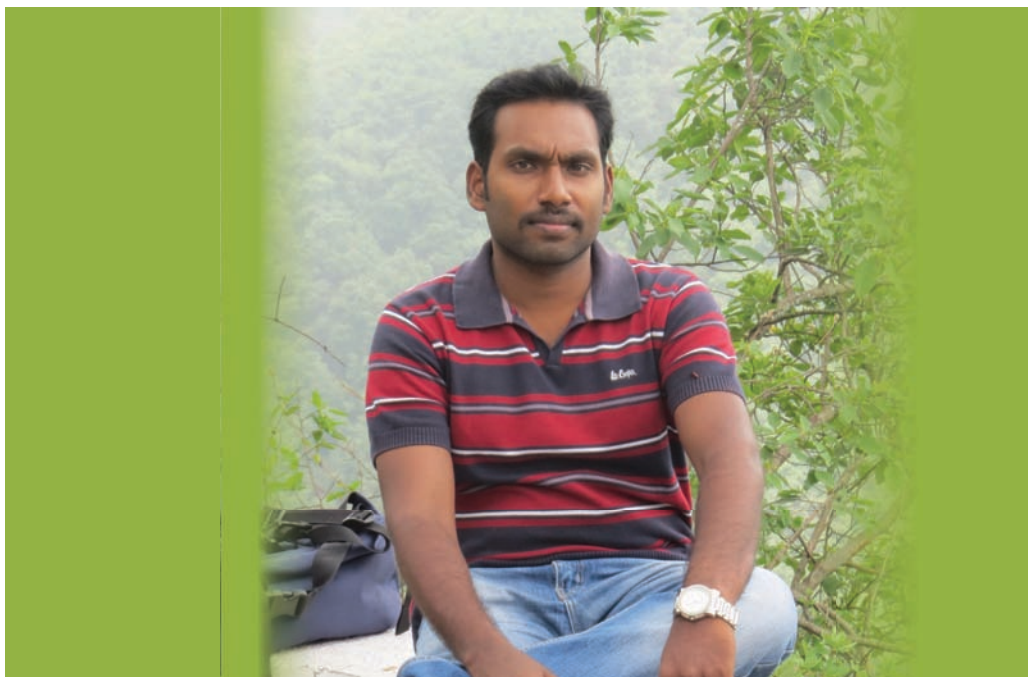

He is an artist, a dancer without bone in his body because he can make any move in dance, soft spoken, creative. I am fond of his rangolis...

Best dancer and dance partner.. He wants perfection in dance and makes me practice same steps over and over again. But he is a nice guy..

The person with whom I played the most....laughed the most....fought the most....talked the most....the person whose friendship i need throughout my life....ka..ka..karu...

What if I call him Rajnikant of our batch.
Smart, intelligent, perfect dancer, witty

Undoubtedly, the most mischievous guy

She came non-chalantly with an innocuous smile, then bowl over you straight without a hint with your talk. Then suddenly she shows you her paintings and all the mindblowing ghazal collection, but most of the times talks of things which does not even matter. But these are only things I remember now and with me will be always!!

Reddy is always ready to help....he is a mobile ATM. When he plays bubble shoot he ignores whoever is standing in front or side or ,,,

Reddy garu, the simpleton of the batch, always ready to share what ever he has, however in return he showers you with a long list of questions, one followed by the other even before you answer the former one ! Best Wishes Buddy Cheers

Crazy for cricket and bollywood movies

She is the person who is not only close to me but to my family also. She is bubbly, charming, caring, sensitive but a bit moody too. We have shared most of our training period together having the requisite blend of sweet and salty flavours. In the years to come, I want to cherish the time we have shared with each other

A very caring and loving friend, who is ready to help without you having to tell her. She made me believe that "Greatness lies in Simplicity"

She is very caring, emotional, highly motivated, strong will powered and a brave girl. I've never seen a girl as determined, who lives for her dreams, and put all her efforts to making it a reality. She is very loyal and sensible. She is the kind of friend you can't afford to lose

As and when I see you I remember one famous quote, "simplicity is the ultimate sophistication". Keep it up

The maratha who would always get a place besides me due to our roll numbers. A budding lawn tennis player who would have been still better only if he had the habit of waking up early

Mast admi, but bets (money) on weak players.. really enjoyed winning with this kind hearted and genuine guy

A cool and complete man, simple in words with golden heart within. I always admire him for his genuine character and simplicity

Life would not be as colourful and eventful in the academy had he not been there in this batch!

He is a de-horned rhino, with an feminine nomenclature and the hope of the hopeless, but he thinks he is normal. He has started a part time job of irritating people with his non-sense watsapp fotos, which make you think why did i ever become his friend. Let's all join hands and get rid of him

One of the most innocent people I've ever met, her questions more often than not, throws the faculty of their balance! She does one of the craziest march-pasts you'll ever see, but left to herself, her awesome dance moves will leave you awestruck.

My good friend from day 1, learnt a lot about life from each other. She does not interfere in others' life that's her biggest attribute.

The girl with the innocence of a child and the zeal to explore everything. She lives life on her own terms. A very nice human being...

Dusky beauty with that brilliant smile..best at everything but not at all showy..talented, confident & smart..yet so simple vidhya, the beautiful lady..

I still can't figure out - You look best in a saree or the saree looks better on you!! A person with the sweetest of voices and good knowledge of birds. Will always be a close friend of mine !!

She might soon get the nobel peace prize, for bearing with Babu. Although she has the privilege of beating him inside the room:-P. But seriously, they are like the cutest and naughtiest couple ever. And Vidhya is always full of life, she is a great singer, dancer, painter

One of the most popular guys in the batch. He has all the credentials to become a great leader..

Dubeyji has an excellent and unique style of speaking..Netaji of our batch..

What he needs to do??? just rise to the podium,, hold the mike and there he is making everyone laugh... mind it he also makes us think a lot on what he speaks.... You will make a different officer Dubey ji...

Dubey ji is the ultimate example of humility and humour... simply a wonderful character we all will cherish to remember...
